Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time July 26, 2009

First Reading: II Kings 4:42-44

A man brought twenty loaves of bread to Elisha the prophet, who told his servant to distribute it to the people. The servant asked how he could offer twenty loaves to one hundred people. Elisha replied that God had said, "They shall eat and there shall be some left over." After all the people had eaten, there was bread left over as God had said.

Second Reading: Ephesians 4:1-6

Paul implores the Ephesians to live a life worthy of their calling by preserving unity among all of Christ's followers. He reminds them that there is one body, one Spirit, and one God who works through all people.

Gospel: John 6:1-15

Jesus fed a crowd of five thousand people with five loaves of bread and a couple of dried fish. After everyone present had enough to eat, twelve baskets of leftover bread were collected. Jesus then realized the people would want to make him king so he fled alone.

Year of the Priest Indulgences

All the faithful may gain a Plenary Indulgence under the usual conditions “who, in church or in chapel, devoutly attend the divine Sacrifice of the Mass and offer prayers to Jesus Christ the Eternal High Priest, for the priests of the Church, and any other good work which they have done on that day, so that He may sanctify them and form them in accordance with His Heart.” This Plenary Indulgence may be gained: “on the days in which the Year for Priests begins and ends [i.e., June 19, 2009 and June 19, 2010], on the day of the 150th anniversary of the pious passing of Saint John Mary Vianney [August 4, 2009], on the first Thursday of the month or on any other day established by the local Ordinaries for the benefit of the faithful.” This Plenary Indulgence is likewise granted to the elderly, the sick and all legitimately confined to their homes, “provided that on the above-mentioned days they recite prayers for the sanctification of priests and confidently offer the illnesses and hardships of their lives to God through Mary, Queen of Apostles.” A Partial Indulgence is granted “to all the faithful every time they devoutly recite five Our Fathers, Hail Marys and Glorias, or another expressly approved prayer, in honor of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, to obtain that priests be preserved in purity and holiness of life.”

The conditions for receiving a Plenary Indulgence, which is the full remission of time one would spend in purgatory, are:

1. Receiving Holy Communion and going to confession within a week.
2. Prayers for the Holy Father.
3. No attachment to sin, even venial sin.

The faithful may gain a Plenary Indulgence once a day for either themselves or a deceased person.
